

the online Offender Information Detail maintained by the Texas Department of Criminal Justice reflects petitioner is serving a sentence for robbery. The mandatory supervision statute in effect when petitioner committed his robbery offense on November 29, 2001 stated “[a]n inmate may not be released to mandatory supervision if the inmate is serving a sentence for or has been previously convicted of . . . an offense for which the judgment contains an affirmative [deadly weapon] finding under Section 3g(a)(2), Article 42.12, Code of Criminal Procedure . . . [or] a second degree felony under Section 29.02, [Texas] Penal Code [robbery].” Texas Gov’t Code § 508.149(a)(1), (11) (2001). Petitioner is serving a sentence for robbery and has indicated in his habeas application that his conviction contained an affirmative deadly weapon finding. As petitioner is not eligible for mandatory supervised release, he may not challenge a prison disciplinary proceeding by way of a federal petition for a writ of habeas corpus. See Malchi, 211 F.3d at 958. Petitioner’s habeas application should be DENIED.
